ETERNAL VIGILANCE NECESSARY TO DETECT WAR CHARITY CAMOUFLAGE

Without desire on our part to lessen the charitable donations of the public or to cast suspicion on legitimate appeals, the following is reproduced from the New York pamphlet "PUBLIC SERVICE" for the consideration of donors:

"Mr. War-Charity Giver

Do you know where your money goes?

Do you stand guard over the rights of our own and our allies' soldiers, sailors and dependents?

Do you permit camouflaging promoters to grow rich on the gifts of a full-hearted and generous public.

The War Charity Camouflage In New York City

Less than 1 per cent of receipts ($754 out of $78,454) was turned over by the Army-Navy Bazaar for comfort kits for our soldiers in France.

$22,247 out of $44,485 (50 per cent) collected for program advertising for this entertainment went into the pockets of collectors.

Dependent families of soldiers will receive $4,000 out of $14,521 collected for them.

"Sweet Girl Solicitors" are said to have "cleaned up" $28,000 for a promoter for another enterprise from persons who gave money for tickets, but who refused to take the tickets because they could not use them.

Soldiers in uniform have been deceived by charity grafters and believing that they were adding to their "bit" have sold tickets and solicited funds for war purposes.

Prominent people have permitted their names to be used for these enterprises without investigation or concern as to methods or returns.

What Is The Remedy?

1—Eternal citizenship vigilance.

2—Strict accountability to the public of all funds collected for war charities.

3—More direct giving, less expenditure in lavishness of entertainment.

4—Holding to responsibility people who permit the use of their names in charity war work.

5—Requiring all solicitors to be licensed and to advertise with their credentials the commissions or other pay received.

FOR MEN ONLY

If there's anything worries a woman
It's something she ought not to know
But you bet she'll find it out somehow
If she gets the least kind of a show.

Now we'll wager ten cents to a dollar
This poem she's already read—
We knew she'd get at it someway
If she had to stand on her head.

The re-construction of more than two hundred saloons in Los Angeles which will be used later for legitimate business, promises considerable work for painters and contractors.

Among other things that are worth knowing;
What in the world ever became of Sunny Jim?

Recent reports to the Railroads' War Board from all the railroads in the country show that on December 1 this year the excess of unfilled car orders amounted to 117,132 cars, a decrease of 22,880 compared with the figures for November. This is an increase of only 10,000 cars compared with December 1 a year ago, although the railroads are handling currently at least 20 per cent more passenger and freight business.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

All members present except Veselich.

Two telegrams from the National Defenders Yuletide Committee asking for additional appropriation for soldiers Christmas boxes, was read and ordered placed on file.

Communications were received concerning an audit of the city's books, from H. A. Reed and from the Baskerville Audit Company. On motion of trustee Henry the board voted to accept the proposition of the Baskerville Audit Company to do the work on a basis of $15 per day with the probability that it would consume seven to ten days' time.

Members of the Fire Company asked for the use of the Council Chamber Saturday night for an entertainment for the benefit of the company, which was granted by the Board.

The Board voted to call a mass meeting at the City Hall for Friday evening, December 28th at which time the Glendale Board of Trustees and members of the Public Service Department would be present to discuss the the proposed issue of bonds to extending the water and lighting systems of Glendale to Tropico.

The following demands were then ordered paid:

Baker Hardware Co., incidentals for Fire Department	$6.30
J. R. Maxwell, for street labor	6.25
New Method Laundry (fire department)	1.67
City Towel Supply Co. (fire department)	1.50

The Board then adjourned to meet again Wednesday evening, January 2, 1918.

JAMES GRISWOLD RAPIDLY RECOVERING FROM ACCIDENT

James Griswold, of 133 W. Tropico Avenue, is rapidly recovering from injuries sustained last week, when the horse he was riding took the bit in his mouth and decided to have things his own way.

Mr. Griswold was returning home for dinner from Hollywood and while coming down the hill on Los Feliz Boulevard, the horse became frightened and after running wild for a few minutes, threw Mr. Griswold off, the fall knocking him unconscious. He was picked up by some Los Angeles people, who brought him to his home in their machine. Examination showed that one rib had been broken, and he also received several severe gashes about his face and body. He is able to be up and around, but he says it will be some time before he can go to work.

The Christian Science Monitor Free Rest Tent, which has been maintained on New Year's Day at the Pasadena Tournament of Roses for several years, will have increased capacity for the 1918 visitors. The location of the tent will be at 458 East Colorado street, one-half block east of Hotel Maryland, on the opposite side of the street. The tent will be comfortably furnished and will afford a quiet resting place for both men and women. Everyone will be welcome and there will be no charges whatever.

EVERY RED-BLOODED AMERICAN WILL BUY WAR-SAVINGS STAMPS

BECAUSE the money they bring will help to maintain on the battlefield some fine, upstanding American boy who is fighting for us and who needs all the help that we can give him.

BECAUSE they are the best investment in the world, secured by the wealth and honor of the United States, and earn the owner 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly.

BECAUSE they lead the way to thrift and tend to repress extravagance and release goods and services which the Government sorely requires to prosecute this war.

THE P. T. A. SANTA CLAUS

The P. T. A. gladdened the hearts of over 80 children, and gave a feast to about fifty families on Christmas Day. The gifts were contributed by the school children, which included toys of every description. The dinners were prepared by generous housewives and sent out Monday.

KELLER SCHOOL OF MUSIC GIVES CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Keller School of music gave its annual Christmas Party last Saturday at Butler's Hall, and was greatly enjoyed by parents and friends. All of Mrs. Keller's pupils were present, including those from Eagle Rock and Los Angeles. There was a great variety of fancy dresses; sweet old fashioned little girls in big hoopskirts and flowered poke bonnets, Turkish ladies, clowns, Red Cross nurses, Liberty Girls in blue tarleton spangled with stars, sons and daughters of Erin, with green very much to the fore in their raiment, colonial gentlemen in velvet knee breeches and gold lace, and little Red, White and Blue patriots.

The program was given almost entirely by the little pupils of the school. Elizabeth and Beatrice Turner danced the St. Denis Mazourka, and little Beatrice alone, barefooted and dressed in dainty pink chiffon, gave an interpretative dance called "The Star of the East," to tremendous applause. She also recited: "Keep an Eye on Sammy Wilson."

Emmeline Chalfant did a fancy waltz number dresed in pink accordeon pleated chiffon.

Mary Alice Ross, in Scotch costume gave a Scotch recitation and danced the Highland Fling very perttily.

Doris Wolf also had a recitation and dance.

A very charming number on the program was the song and dance "The Sweet Long Ago," by Marie Hearnshaw in a beruffled flowered gown, flaring hoopskirt, and coquettish bonnet.

At the last and as a surprise, Merna and Merle Kahler appeared after having done their turn at Pantages, and added two numbers to the program. They both did the cake walk, and little Merna rendered her famous reciation, "That Would Never Make A Hit With Me."

The music for the entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Keller's brother, Jack McKittrick, and his orchestra.

A beautiful Christmas tree centered the platform with heaps of bags of candy and nuts piled around it. These were distributed to the children who were also served with punch and cake. They danced until five o'clock and had a royal good time.

FOOD will win the war.

MARY LOGAN ENTERTAINS

Miss Mary Logan entertained at her parent's home on Central Avenue, Thursday evening, with a dancing party. Various games were played, and the evening was "topped off" with a very nice dinner. Mary's hospitality was enjoyed by twenty-four of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. MacNaughton Barnes, of 112 Walnut Street, entertained with a dinner on Christmas Day. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Chandler, Mrs. A. L. Chandler, Mrs. E. F. Barnes, Mrs. Kinne and three children, Almeda, Alison and Kenneth.

VACANT LOT MEETING

A public meeting is called for Saturday evening at 1017 Broadway, Glendale, for the purpose of exchanging ideas and formulating plans, whereby all the vacant lots and idle land in this vicinity be planted and made productive this coming season. It is vitally important that every portion of this vast country be utilized at this time. It is the little things that count. if each locality will do its part, the aggregate will be enormous.

A general invitation to all, young and old, boys and girls, men and women to attend and take part in the meeting is extended.

PHILATHEA CLASS

The Philathea Girls gave a Christmas Party, Friday evening, December 21, at the Presbyterian Church.

The program consisted of music and recitations, which was opened with organized orchestra composed of an instrumental number by the newly Mrs. Clyde Seal, Irene Ward, Bessie Wood, George Harrison, Landon Haynes and little son, Andrew. Other numbers of the program were—

"Holy Night," Chorus by Philathea Girls.

"Dear Little Stranger" chorus by Miss Tirza Snell's class.

"The Night Before Christmas" recitation by Evelyn Horning.

"Jingle Bells" presented in a very unique way by the classes of Mrs. Will Hillman and Mrs. Merritt Ludden.

"Joy to the World" chorus by Philathea Girls.

"Baby Jesus" and "Jesus Bids Us Shine" was sung by the Primary Class.

"How Far Is it to Christmas" recitation by Mildred Moody.

"Brighten Up the Corner" by the Orchestra.

Piano Solo by Miss Ruth Rider,.

Piano Duett by Misses Gladys Martin and Mida Butler.

Santa Claus then appeared and distributed small gifts to the little ones.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

A Christmas dinner and family reunion was held by Mr. and Mrs. John Crane at their home, 103 N. Glendale Avenue, and all children and families were present except one son, Chas. Crane, who resides with his family in Rock Island, Ill. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Weldon, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Reynolds and son, Meredith, of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crane, of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bruck and son, Herbert, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crane and daughter, Aileen, all of Tropico.

There were three grand-children, and one great grand-child at the gathering.

Mr. Weldon has just returned from Rock Island, Ill. He is enjoying Sunny California, as he says it was 17 below when he left the East.

Black Gingerbread.

A delicious old recipe for black gingerbread calls for two cupfuls of Porto Rico molasses, one cupful of shortening, one of boiling water, one egg, a tablespoonful of soda, a tablespoonful of ginger and flour enough to make a fairly stiff dough. Pour the boiling water over the soda, add it to the shortening and stir in the molasses. Sift the ginger with a cupful of flour and mix that in also; then add about three more cupfuls of flour or enough to make a batter that can be easily stirred. For a ginger cake without eggs use a cupful of shortening, a cupful of boiling water, two of molasses, three and a half of sifted flour, a tablespoonful of soda and one of ginger.

SEND YOUR FIELD GLASSES, SPY-GLASSES OR TELESCOPES TO WASHINGTON TO BE 'EYES' FOR THE FLEET

The Navy needs these "eyes" to derive the submarine of its sting and it has requested the California State Council of Defense to help it obtain them. Commissioning hundreds of new ships for naval service has created a demand for observation glasses far in excess of the present American output. The only way to insure an adequate supply while the manufacturers of lenses are speeding up production is by appealing to the patriotism of private owners.

The Government pays a nominal fee of $1,00 for each glass accepted and the donor is further rewarded by knowing that his patriotic contribution may be the means of saving thousands of troops in transport and also of saving much-needed shipping from destruction.

Old, scuffed telescopes or field glasses may possess first class lenses, so don't be chary about forwarding them regardless of appearance.

Ship direct by mail or express to Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Naval Observatory, Washington, D. C. Tie a tag with your name and address to each instrument.

LEVERT GODDARD ON FURLOUGH

Levert Goddard arrived home, Sunday afternoon, from Mare Island, where he is a student in the Electrical School. He has a 15 days furlough, and judging from the way things started off he will have 15 days of "royal welcome," for on the same evening of the day he arrived he was surprised by a number of his friends who made it a very merry evening for him.

He will spend most of the time at home with his mother, Mrs. C. E. Goddard, 617 W. Park Avenue, and return to Mare Island, January 5. He says he likes his work fine.

METHODIST CHURCH CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT

The Christmas entertainment given at the M. E. Church, Monday evening, was a very pretty and largely attended one. Santa Claus was there, and he gave a present to all the little boys and girls. The program was furnished by children, who rendered the following numbers.

Songs and reciations by children of the primary department.

"Christmas Lullaby," solo by Geraldine Meagher.

"Shepherd's Lullaby," piano solo by Erma Hollis Lucas.

"Holy Night," chorus by girls of Philathea class.

"A Long Time Ago," chorus by girls of Mrs. Lake's class.

MRS. GOLDIE MARTIN PLAYS SANTA CLAUS

Mrs. Goldie Martin, 215 N. San Fernando boulevard, played Santa Claus to 14 of Tropico's youngsters on Christmas eve. Gathering up all the little boys in her neighborhood, she took them into the big city and entertained them with a box party at the Orpheum. The boys had a "swell" time, so did Mrs. Martin, notwithstanding the fact that taking 14 "kids" to town is some job itself.

WAR SAVINGS IN A NUTSHELL

Q. What is the War-Savings Plan?

A. It is a plan by which you can lend small savings to your Government at 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly.

Q. How may this be done?

A. By purchasing War-Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps.

Q. What is a War-Savings Stamp?

A. It is a stamp for which the Government will pay you $5 on January 1, 1923.

Q. What does it cost?

A. Between $4.12 and $4.23, depending upon the month in which purchased.

Q. What is a Thrift Stamp?

A. It is a stamp costing 25 cents, to be applied in payment for a War-Savings Stamp. It does not earn interest. The purpose of its issue is to enable people to accumulate in small sums the amount necessary to pay for a War-Savings Stamp.

Q. Where can I buy them?

A. At post offices, banks, and authorized agencies.

Q. Why should I buy them?

A. Every dollar loaned to the Government helps to save the lives of our men at the front and to win the war.

Carved Bread Boards.

Scandinavia still uses the beautiful hand carved bread boards that make the cutting of bread at table a constantly renewed aesthetic pleasure as well as an economical habit. Instead of lavishing time and skill on beautiful linen chests and chairs that cannot profitably be sold except at high price, why should not the wood carvers of this country set to work to turn out as many bread boards as possible, so that no home need be without one? The design may consist of the simplest possible notched edge or the most elaborate dragon motive; the point is to produce numbers of this bread saving article of table furniture and make it the fashion to use it.—New York Times.

The Gallows Plant.

During the middle ages the botanists, or old "herbalists," gave currency to many curious stories concerning the growth, form, etc., of the mandrake or May apple, which finally resulted in its being given the name of "gallows plant." The pseudo scientists of that time declared that mandrakes would grow in no other place except upon which some terrible crime had been committed. The roots were formerly supposed to bear a strong resemblance to the human form.

Shiftless people are never the ones who worry about it.

You Say You Can't Advertise?

That's what others have said and all of a sudden found some competitor was doing what they thought they couldn't do. And getting away with it.

Get the bulge on your competitors by telling your story in an attractive manner so it will be read. You ll get the results.

We Are Anxious to Help

HARMONIOUS LIVING.

Whatever we have we have through the aid of others. All that we have we have for the aid of others. Of our own unaided strength we could gain or make nothing. Holding aught that we have for our own exclusively, it becomes as nothing to us. Co-operation in production and sharing in use and enjoyment are the twin secrets of rightly adjusted harmonious living.—Henry F. Cope.

MARINE CORPS TEAM IN SCRIMMAGE

Undefeated Marine Corps Team Plays Camp Lewis Eleven at Pasadena on New Years Day

The present football season has covered the Mare Island Marine football team with glory as well as gore, for they have gone down the line undefeated so far. Every football team that has opposed them has been trammeled in the dust and not once has victory been accredited to the Sea Soldiers' opponents.

Apparently a rival worthy of their steel has appeared on the northern horizon. The famous soldier team at Camp Lewis has girded its loins and comes forth to battle the Marines for the benefit of the Red Cross at Pasadena on New Years Day.

Sport critics maintain it will be the football game of the year. Added to the atmosphere of the Rose Festival will be the keen rivalry of the Army and Navy.

Soldiers, sailors and marines will cheer their respective favorites into action and when champions meet champions, it will be a battle worth while.

And it is well to remember that all this reeking of sweat and bespattering of blood goes to swell the coffers of the Red Cross. Let's go!

HELPFULNESS.

If you know how to make man better, if you can keep him from becoming a quitter, it is your duty to speak out with voice or pen to make your fellows better men.

WHAT YOU HAVE.

Do good with what thou hast or it will do thee no good. If thou wouldst be happy, bring thy mind to thy condition and have an indifferency for more than what is sufficient.—William Penn.
